TWO MORGAN COUNTY RESIDENTS ARRESTED FOR ILLEGAL CHARITY GAMING

The Indiana Department of Revenue's Criminal Investigation Division filed charges with the Morgan County Prosecutor's Office on Wednesday (Jan. 30, 2002) against Raquel L. Meade and Frances A. Meade as a result of an investigation into illegal charity gaming activities conducted in the name of the Brooklyn Volunteer Fire Department.

The two, who are residents of Morgan County, are alleged to have contracted with the fire department to conduct bingo. Such contracting is unlawful in Indiana. Each was charged with one count of Contracting to Conduct Charity Gaming, which is a Class D felony.
